Culture of Peace Formation Program for Educators

Making the Connections between Peace, Ecology and Justice

May 13th & June 5th, 2013

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

This program is intended for school leaders, co-ordinators, teachers and parent leaders. It will assist participants in gaining deeper understanding of the connections between Peace, Ecology and Justice. Participants will see that a Culture of Peace involves:

- A commitment to life for all
- Promotion of non-violence
- Dialogue and Listening
- Solidarity with those living in poverty
- Working for justice
- Preservation of the Earth

The program offers a range of strategies and resources for the implementation of initiatives within the school community. The two day program will involve;

- Input from individuals working in the area of Peace, Ecology and Justice
- Individual reading and reflection
- Information about Catholic and Church agencies working in the field
- Discussion and planning with other educators
- Modelling and practice of recommended approaches and skills for implementation in the school.

PROGRAM OUTCOMES

Participants will

- Recognise that Jesus Christ is central to their lives
- Appreciate ways that Catholic Schools are places of active Christian community and Evangelisation and an influence in the broader community
- Develop approaches to the evangelising mission of the Church and Proclamation of the Kingdom of God
- Hear and respond to the Gospel call to ecological conversion, non-violence, justice and compassion
- Have greater knowledge of Catholic Social Teaching on Peace, Ecology and Justice
- Understand some current issues related to Peace, Ecology and Justice
- Be able to use the Catholic Social Teaching learning Framework
- Be committed to action for Peace, Ecology and Justice
- Develop strategies for integrating Peace, Ecology and Justice Education and initiatives within their School
