

Religions and Cultures in Conversation

THEO3022

Presenter

Rev Dr Patrick J
McInerney

Commencing Online
Monday 23 July 2012

This course examines the growth of interreligious relations as a positive response to the challenges of religious plurality in our globalised world and an antidote to religious extremism. The course traces the stages in the emergence of this development, the scriptural and theological resources for this engagement, and how building relations across religious and cultural divisions is integral to developing a harmonious society.
