Christmas Mystery

I stand in wonder at a baby who is God.
I am silent and called to contemplate
what I see.

Thank you, all-loving God, for giving me the faith that I can know such a thing.

He is like millions of other babies, but this one chose to be born of Mary and come to be with us, die for us and rise to a new life.

What can I say? It is too wonderful to say anything meaningful. I admire, wonder, adore, and give deep thanks for Love incarnate.

Help me, Lord, to absorb the deep mystery of this Christmas.

Help me to share the story of the deep love of God for each of us.

Amen.
